

The Center for Special Needs
Programs for Parents/Professionals Presents:

Life After High School

A Guide for Students with Disabilities and Their Families

Thu, Apr 7, 7-9 pm, $20/$25 HSRLAH00WI

SUSAN YELLIN, attorney and author, founded The Center for Learning Differences and developed its annual Life After High School Conference. Her new book, written with Christina Bertsch, former head of disability services at Fordham University, looks at how students with all kinds of disabilities can prepare for college and what they need to know and to do to obtain the supports and accommodations that will help them succeed once they get there.

jccmanhattan.org/specialneeds

The JCC in Manhattan

334 Amsterdam Ave. @ 76th St.

New York, NY 10023

646.505.4444

A beneficiary of UJA-Federation